

Want to copy television and radio programs?

All universities and TAFEs, most schools and many other educational institutions have a Screenrights licence to copy from television and radio for teaching. It's simple.

You can copy:

- Any program – movies, current affairs, documentaries, series, whatever you like
- Any amount – copy five minutes or an entire drama, make one copy or 20, it's up to you
- Anywhere – make copies at home or in your library
- From any channel – copy from free to air TV, pay TV or radio
- Podcasts and vodcasts – copy broadcast material made available online by the broadcaster
- In any format – copy onto VHS or DVD or store copies on a hard drive
- From old copies – update your old VHS off air copies by putting them in digital format

And make the following uses of your copies:

- Show them in class
- Keep them in your library as an ongoing resource
- Store them on a network for staff and students
- Email them to staff and students

Remember to label all copies:

Made for (institution's) educational purposes
under Part VA, Copyright Act 1968

Date of broadcast

Date this copy made

And include a warning notice on copies that are communicated online:

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA
Copyright Regulations 1969
WARNING

This material has been copied and communicated to you by or on behalf of [insert name of institution] pursuant to Part VA of the Copyright Act 1968 (the Act).

The material in this communication may be subject to copyright under the Act. Any further copying or communication of this material by you may be the subject of copyright or performers protection under the Act.

Do not remove this notice.

What upcoming programs are relevant to your teaching areas?

Visit www.enhancetv.com.au. This free website has been developed by Screenrights to help teachers get the most out of film and television in the classroom. Find out about upcoming educational programs through EnhanceTV's:

- Free weekly email of TV highlights – subscribe now
- RSS feeds
- Podcasts
- Online educational TV guide

Want free resources to help you teach?

EnhanceTV's resources will help reduce your workload in preparing lessons. Visit the site now for over 500 free study guides and feature articles available for download.

Missed recording a program?

We've copied it for you. Visit EnhanceTV's new online store for:

- Huge range of educational film & TV programs
- Ad free high quality copies
- Fast delivery
- Competitive pricing
- DVD format
- Free-to-air and pay-TV programs
- Convenient payment options

www.enhancetv.com.au Join now – it's FREE

Brought to you by screenrights

Need a licence?

If you work at an educational institution and want to find out whether you have a licence, or if you would like to apply for one now, just email licensing@screenrights.org