

screenrights

MEDIA KIT

LICENCES

Screenrights is a non-profit appointed by the government to provide simple licensing solutions for:

- Educational institutions in Australia and New Zealand to copy broadcast material
- Pay TV services to retransmit free-to-air broadcasts
- State and federal governments to copy from television and radio

ROYALTY PAYMENTS

The licence fees we collect become secondary royalty payments to rightsholder members. Membership is free.

OTHER SERVICES

We also offer a Film & TV Disbursements service, a Worldwide Royalty Collection service, and an annual Cultural Fund.

4,700

MEMBERS IN 69
COUNTRIES AND GROWING

$46.5M

DISTRIBUTED TO MEMBERS IN 2019/20

$5.4M

COLLECTED BY OUR DISBURSEMENTS
SERVICE IN 2019/20

CEO: JAMES DICKINSON

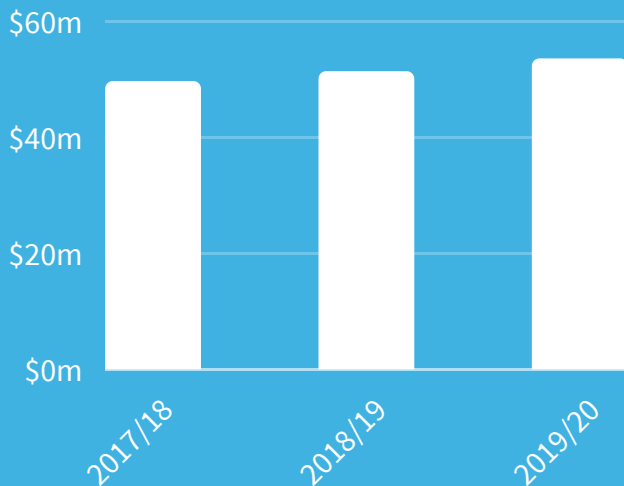

Former General Manager and Head of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs at Screenrights, James had been with the organisation for 20 years before being appointed CEO in 2018.

CHAIR: KIM DALTON

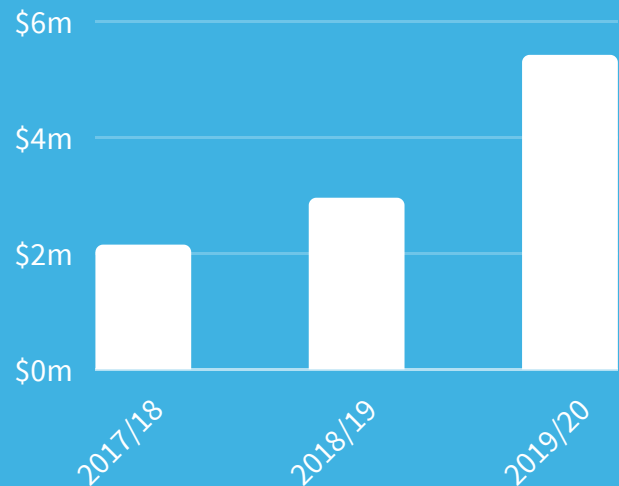

Former CEO, Australian Film Commission; former Director, ABC Television; recipient of the Order of Australia medal for service to the Australian film and television industry. Director since 2015, elected Chair 2019.

LICENCES

Revenue from licences and other collection services (including interest) 2017/18-2019/20

DISBURSEMENTS SERVICE

Total collections through Screenrights' Disbursements service 2017/18-2019/20

CONTACT

info@screenrights.org

AU: +61 2 8038 1300
NZ: 0800 44 2348

@screenrights1

www.fb.com/screenrights

ABOUT US

Screenrights is a non-profit member organisation that provides rights and royalty management services to the screen industry.

Access our logos and usage instructions here.

Our offices are at Level 1, 140 Myrtle Street Chippendale NSW 2008.

www.screenrights.org